

EMAIL HACKER

About February 2025, a hacker hacked my email account and locked me out. He took the names and addresses of all of the people in my contacts and sent them emails asking for money on a gift card. Jaskowiak also got one. I explained I was hacked to the parole department and they accepted I did not contact jaskowiak asking for money.

A question.

Hello,

Sorry to bother, Hope you are keeping safe ?

I want to know if this email is still valid to write to you? I'm unable to speak over the phone due to a serious throat pain caused by laryngitis. I'd like to ask something from you please.

Hi. If you got a email from me claiming it is me and wanting money, it was not me. Everybody in my email files was sent the same email. Jenny got one and many others, including businesses. I am going to get a regular email account.

Hope all is well.

I thought so. My e-mail account sends alerts whenever it receives those types of e-mails that are clearly fake. Sorry that happened. I was going to call you on the phone in case you were unaware that you'd been hacked, but I'm in bed with a fever. I picked up a virus at work over the weekend. Also, I was about to reach out to mention that the upcoming commissioners' meeting is on the evening of April 3rd at the Lower Merion township building. Obviously, that's a hike for you, and even for me, but since the evening meetings draw a larger crowd, that could be an opportunity for you to bring your sign. Let me know if you're thinking of going. I might go. I should be better by then, or at least out of the contagion phase. . .

Hi Katie,

If you got any emails that looked like they came from me, they were not. My email was hacked on Monday and all of the people in my files got a email asking for money or gift cards. Do not send any, it was not me. I have to use gmail until I get a regular email service.

Hope you and your husband are having some luck with your problems and health.

Ok, thanks for the heads up. I knew it was not you. It also came on my yahoo one, which I use sometimes but do not trust. I am grateful you are alive. I visioned bad things happened to you. The messages really looked like what Rick Black did all the time. You always sign arthur. This no name at the end. Stated your niece had stage 4 cancer and you needed a apple gift card to give her money. It said they were out of town and could not get it now. I knew it was fishy. It is odd your email got hacked as it was more secure than mine are. I want to get proton.. out of switzerland. Suppose to be most secure. James O'keef uses it, a big investigator of deep state fraud. Our progress is slow. Slowing me down on this DOGE work which is immense. I pray you please get into a sec. 8 apartment that is on a pay scale of what your income is. You should not be without shelter of your own, no matter what. I wrote back to ask if it was you.. and the hacker replied it is me.... in both. Thought they killed you or put you in jail and stole all your info on your phone. The fraudster said ... had a bad virus throat and could not talk on the phone. Can your friend that is letting you use his email, allow you to stay with him, for a fee? The world is cold and awful. We don't have any family to help us either nor friends for that matter. Thanks and I will pray for your safety. Katie

Good day Matt,

I hope you are well and that you still remember me,

(PSE)

I received a suspicious email from Arthur's email address and from another email address which does not reflect Arthur's writing style.

Do you know if Arthur is still okay?

It seems that someone else is impersonating Arthur, and writing from Arthur's email address, and the other email address I have not seen before?

Please let me know if Arthur is okay, or if anything has happened to him.

Thanks for the response. I need to get an Apple gift card for my niece, who is diagnosed with stage 4 mesothelioma cancer. It's her birthday, but I can't do this now because I'm currently out of town. I tried purchase it online, but unfortunately, I got no luck on that. I was wondering if you could get it at any nearest store around you. I'll reimburse you; let me know if you can handle this.

Awaiting your kind reply.

Thanks.
