

JASKOWIAK AND CAMP BIO

Britanny camp wrote the fake petition for guardianship for jsh. Both camp and jaskowiak knew guardianship laws, rules, rights of the AIP and the PA Rules of Conduct for lawyers. Both of them have made many videos about guardianship laws and guardianship in general.

The fact was camp's petition had NO examples of any problems mother had where she needed a guardian of person or estate and NEVER brought in anyone that Mother dealt with every year (doctors, CPA, house keeper, hairdresser, dentist, etc) to claim mother had any problems.

Because camp NEVER gave any examples and never brought in anyone, WHY didn't weilheimer or jaskowiak (as Mother's court appointed lawyer by corrupt judge weilheimer and his sole job was to protect and defend Mother and act in HER behalf not his), WHY didn't weilheimer or jaskowiak demand camp/jsh petition be denied????????????????????????????????????

X

David A. Jaskowiak, Esq.

Mr. Jaskowiak is a sole practitioner in Jenkintown, PA, who has been in practice since 1987. He received a Bachelor of Arts from La Salle College (now, University) in 1977, graduating maxima cum laude. After several years working as a licensed real estate broker in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, he received his law degree from Temple University in 1987, graduating cum laude. His work in the area of elder law now focuses principally on litigation involving elder abuse, POA abuse and other financial exploitation issues, filial support, and guardianships. He has previously presented for the Pennsylvania Association of Elder Law Attorneys ("PAELA"), the Pennsylvania Bar Institute, the Montgomery County Bar Association, the Elder Roundtable for Justice, and both the Lehigh and Montgomery County Estate Planning Councils. He is admitted to practice in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, the United States District Courts for the Eastern and Middle Districts of Pennsylvania, and the Third Circuit.

Brittany J. Camp, Esq.

Brittany J. Camp focuses her practice on trust and estate planning and administration. She also focuses on fiduciary aspects of guardianships and litigation settlements for minors and incapacitated persons. Brittany earned her bachelor's degree from Cornell University in 2009. She then graduated from Villanova University School of Law in 2012 where she was Managing Editor of Operations of the Sports and Entertainment Law Journal. During law school, Brittany was a student attorney for the Villanova Law Federal Tax Clinic where she represented low-income taxpayers in controversies before the Internal Revenue Service and in the U.S. Tax Court. Prior to joining Heckscher, Tellon, Terrill & Sager, Brittany was an associate in a small general practice law firm in Atlantic City, New Jersey. Brittany went on to earn her Masters of Law in Taxation and Estate Planning Certificate from Villanova University School of Law in 2014.