

1 Fenstermacher, were sending letters to Mr. Herring
2 at his mother's former residence where he resided 3 with his mother, knowing that the Court, Judge 4 weilheimer, had evicted Mr. Herring from his 5 mother's house and he was no longer living at the 6 house.

7  So, obviously, those letters could not 8 reach Mr. Herring, so Mr. Herring found out about 9 the letters and simply wrote to the lawyers -- 10 e-mailed -- sent them an e-mail saying, Please don't 11 send them there. Here's a -- you know, here's where 12 you should send letters if you're sending them to 13 me. And that's the explanation of that.

14  To my knowledge, Mr. Herring has not 15 appeared ever again at Mr. Jaskowiak's house. He 16 did not -- he was not actually on his property.
17 It's my understanding from all -- from the prior 18 case that Mr. Herring was picketing on the sidewalk 19 and street in front of Mr. Jaskowiak's house. He 20 did not ever approach the house.

21 Mr. Herring has promised that he will 22 not have any contact of any kind nor write any 23 letters again. And so, I offer that to the Court --

24 THE COURT: But I think --

25 MR. MEITNER: -- as a solution.

1 THE COURT: I think I heard that from 2 Mr. Herring at the time of his sentencing, that he 3 was going to not have any contact of any kind or 4 type with the individuals that were the subject of 5 his -- the criminal complaint.

6 → MR. MEITNER: That is correct,
7 Your Honor, and he has not -- and these letters did 8 not go to Mr. Jaskowiak at all. They went to an 9 attorney from whom he was seeking representation, 10 and he had no other way to tell that attorney about 11 who his potential claim was against unless he 12 mentioned the name.

13 → So I -- I'm not -- I'm not even sure 14 that it is a technical violation or not, but I think 15 a person is normally entitled to write a letter to a 16 lawyer asking for representation.

17 THE COURT: Well --

18 THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor --

19 → MR. MEITNER: He had no idea that the 20 attorney he was writing to would communicate 21 directly with Mr. -- kind of indirectly with Mr.
22 Jaskowiak, but that attorney apparently did, and 23 that's how Mr. Jaskowiak became aware that a letter 24 had been sent.

25 → THE COURT: But when I look at the

What?

1 letter, the letter isn't saying, Hey, and the other 2 attorney who represented me was Mr. Jaskowiak. It 3 says disparaging things about Mr. Jaskowiak, which 4 isn't necessary to advise someone, This is the 5 lawyer, make sure you don't have a conflict.

6 → MR. MEITNER: Well, he was trying to 7 tell them why he wanted them to represent him in the 8 claim -- in his claims against Mr. Jaskowiak and 9 other lawyers. Now, whether he's ever able to get a 10 lawyer to do that or not, I don't know, but it seems 11 like an explanation would need to be in order in 12 order to hire a lawyer in the first place.

13 THE COURT: Let me ask, Mr. Jaskowiak,
 14 if you could come back up to the stand.

15 THE TIPSTAFF: Gentlemen, I'm going to 16 ask you to move over here, please.

17 THE COURT: Sir, you remain under 18 oath.

19 THE WITNESS: Yes, Your Honor. Thank 20 you.

Hacker

21 → THE COURT: Did you receive an e-mail?
 22 THE WITNESS: Yes. The e-mail was 23 subsequent to the letter that had been sent to 24 Maureen Anderson. The letter was sent to Ms.
 25 Anderson on or about March 4th of 2025. I received

Hacker →

1 that e-mail a few weeks later. I do believe that,
 2 especially given the fact that Ms. Anderson was one 3 of a number of attorneys who had received the 4 letters in the past from Mr. Herring, that he 5 reasonably knew that it would get back to me, 6 because he knew the last one got back to me, because 7 we had referenced it, I believe, in the court
 8 proceeding that was in front of Judge Melissa 9 Sterling in orphans court.

10 → So I don't think that this was just 11 something unrelated that just perchance happened, 12 and that's why I said, I view the e-mail as 13 taunting, knowing that I would get it, knowing that 14 I would check and see what latest things had been 15 put on a new website that was far and beyond, well 16 beyond what the last website was.

17 → I should note, Your Honor, that now 18 he's including not only things about my son, but 19 he's including things about other lawyers who were 20 involved in the case. He's reported everybody I 21 think involved in the case, practically, to various 22 disciplinary committees and professional conduct 23 committees. He's just gone off completely, and, as 24 I said, posted pictures. Pictures, by the way,

3 So it was clear, I think, that he knew
4 I was going to get that information, and that's why,
5 → when I got that e-mail, I contacted the District
6 Attorney's Office because I viewed it as taunting.
7 It's not going to stop. It really isn't. And Mr.
8 Meitner knows because Mr. Meitner was involved in at 9 least one of the previous incarceration hearings
10 that took place in Montgomery County Orphans Court, 11 so he well knows what Mr. Herring had done and the 12 reasons that he did it and why he was required to be 13 incarcerated.

14 THE COURT: So tell me about the 15 e-mail that you received.

Hacker

16 → THE WITNESS: The e-mail -- I don't 17 have it right in front of me, Your Honor, but the 18 e-mail, in essence, it was from tomlinher, 19 T-O-M-L-I-N-H-E-R, 1925 at -- I'm trying to 20 remember. It's a strange domain that he sends them 21 from. So I instantly knew who it was from. I 22 → instantly knew it was not supposed to be sent to me.

What?

Lie

23 → And it was, Hi, how are you doing kind of a thing, 24 and it wasn't signed with Arthur Herring, but it was 25 clear who it was from, because that was the same

Lie

1 → e-mail on all the pleadings that he signed.

Lie

2 → Remember, at a certain point in time
3 he decided to represent himself in the orphans
4 court. I had his e-mail probably 250 times or so 5 throughout that proceeding. That's why I remember 6 it off the top of my head.

Lie,
McHugh
never did

7 → THE COURT: All right. So my 8 understanding is that Mr. Meitner is saying because 9 this was not sent directly to you but to someone 10 else, it doesn't violate the terms of the no contact 11 provision. I'm going to do some research, and I 12 will tell you that if it does, if I find cases that 13 say it violates the terms, I'm going to put Mr.
14 Herring in jail.

Liar,
Jasko
cannot predict

15 → THE WITNESS: May I say one other
16 thing, Your Honor. I very closely listened to Mr.
17 Meitner and something that he said, he won't do 18 anything until the one year runs out. I know what 19 will happen if nothing is done in this Court. I 20 know what will happen on July 17th, 18th, 19th and 21 thereafter, and if I think it's bad now, it's just 22 going to get worse.

Lie, Jasko
brags he uses

23 → At some point decency and civility
24 have to carry the day, and I think that the message
25 has to be sent that this is unacceptable conduct. I

→ 1 was appointed by a Court to do a job. I wasn't just 2 a lawyer off the street. I was, in essence, for 3 that limited purpose, a public official. And it 4 sends a chilling message. Anybody, if you're 5 appointed by a Court, that if you're going to do
 6 your job, watch out. This just shouldn't happen.

7 → THE COURT: I understand and agree
 8 with you.

9 → THE WITNESS: Thank you, Your Honor.
 10 I appreciate your time.

11 MR. MCCARTNEY: Your Honor, if I could 12 address the Court very briefly.

13 THE COURT: Sure.

14 → MR. MCCARTNEY: There's a no contact 15 order I've just been provided a copy by one of the 16 probation officers here today. And, Your Honor, in 17 No. 8 of the no contact order, assumingly signed by 18 this defendant, states: Communicating with a third 19 party who has some relationship with the other 20 person with the intent of affecting the third 21 party's relationship with the other person.

22 To me, Your Honor, that sounds like

16 THE COURT: No. This is just a blank

18 MR. HUNTER: Sorry. I should have 19 known that. We don't have his folder here from our 20 department. At any time during instruction when 21 someone is sentenced, they're going to be given 22 copies of the rules to review and sign which would 23 say no victim contact, as stated per the court
24 order. We would also, if there's a no victim 25 contact, have them sign the no victim contact form.

5 THE COURT: I'm going to ask you to go

14 THE COURT: Okay.

15 MR. MEITNER: -- which I'll be happy
16 to have the Court look at. It's my only copy.

17 → I was with Mr. Herring in court when 18 he did sign, but our position is that writing to an 19 attorney without knowledge that that attorney -- Mr.
20 Herring had no knowledge that that attorney would 21 communicate with Mr. Jaskowiak. He was trying to 18 A. I must have. I sent out many letters. I've

2 → A. I had no idea that anybody would be contacting 3 him. I've contacted the Bar. I contacted the Bucks 4 County Bar, Philadelphia Bar, Delaware County Bar and 5 Chester County Bar trying to find a lawyer to sue the 6 various issues that were involved in my mother's 7 guardianship that were against the law and had looted

12 → She was literally kidnaped from her house by 13 my sister, who was 70, and the original guardian.

14 → THE COURT: well, how does this have 15 anything to do with the question that was just asked 16 of you? Did you write her a letter?

17 → THE DEFENDANT: I sent out many 18 letters pertaining to it. It looks like my

20 as being a lawyer to represent me in various matters 21 pertaining to the guardianship.

2 "Did you have any idea" --

3 THE COURT: Hold on.

4 → THE DEFENDANT: I don't know what

6 BY MR. MEITNER:

7 Q. Let me finish the question, please.

8 → THE COURT: I don't like your 9 attitude. Okay. You're here for a violation of 10 your probation. You act like you're not on 11 probation. You are on probation, and you have an 12 order from me that you have no contact with the 13 victim, and you signed a paper that says,
14 Communicating contact includes, but is not limited 15 to, communicating with a third party who has some 16 relationship with the other person with the intent 17 of affecting the third party's relationship with the 18 other person.

19 That's what you're charged with,
20 violating that section.

21 → THE DEFENDANT: May I respond,
22 Your Honor?

23 THE COURT: You may respond.

24 THE DEFENDANT: Okay. Thank you.

25 Again, I was sending out letters to lawyers trying attitude?

1 to see if they would be representing me in various 2 legal matters. I do not know what lawyer knows what 3 lawyer, and the point was -- basically, that is a 4 very vague -- such as No. 8 and No. 9, they're 5 basically vague and they're not specific in what the 6 Court is asking.

Fact →

FACT!

7 So the fact that I -- to -- excuse
 8 me -- to -- to use that to say, well, I'm not 9 allowed to send out letters to lawyers looking for 10 legal representation, that's denying me my right to 11 have a lawyer. What other way would there be as far 12 as trying to get a lawyer's help?

Yes,
Obviously

13 THE COURT: So you think that the 14 letter you sent was really a letter asking for a 15 lawyer to represent you?

16 THE DEFENDANT: Of course.

17 THE COURT: That's what you wanted?
 18 That's what you think it did?

19 THE DEFENDANT: Yes.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

FACT!

21 THE DEFENDANT: And I referenced my 22 news website, janeherring.net, with all of those 23 videos, documents, pictures, e-mails, proving what I
 24 said in that two-page letter. So it wasn't slander 25 in any way. It was documented by the news website,

news

news

2 So, again, guardianship corruption is 3 nationwide. I have another news website, 4 protectmyparents.us, which has been up for about 5 three years. The janeherring.net website has been 6 up for about six months. I don't slander people.
 7 That's why the website had all the documents, 8 pictures, e-mails, et cetera, pertaining to -- I got 9 a cold -- that's why -- that is why I have the 10 website, for any lawyer to go to it and see those 11 documents backing up what I say in my two-page 12 newsletter.

Fact →

13 → Again, it was not -- the purpose was 14 not to irritate or --

15 THE COURT: I've heard you.

16 → THE DEFENDANT: -- antagonize,
 17 whatever.

18 THE COURT: Any other questions of 19 your client?

Fact →

20 → MR. MEITNER: Only that -- not of my 21 client. My only -- only thing I'm saying to the 22 Court is, if you believe that he was seeking a 23 lawyer, then he had to mention the names of the 24 people that -- that he was asking the lawyer to 25 represent him against, and that's what I think he

1 did.

2 THE COURT: Well, that's not what I
 3 think he did. I think that he intended to have 4 contact with the victim in this matter. He had 5 signed an agreement as to what no contact was, and 6 one of them was communicating with a third party who 7 has some relationship with the other person with the 8 intent of affecting the third party's relationship 9 with the other person.

10 I find that he's in violation of that 11 provision of the no contact order. I find that he's 12 in violation of the term of his probation, and his 13 probation is revoked.

14 Anything to present before sentencing?

15 MR. MEITNER: Your Honor, I -- the 16 only thing to present is that Mr. Herring thought he 17 was trying to hire a lawyer. I know you've rejected 18 that, but --

19 THE COURT: Well, I reject that -- he 20 recklessly engaged in writing letters to people who 21 he had no idea if they had contact with the victim 22 or not, and he didn't need to write the victim's 23 name in the letter to get a lawyer. So I reject his 24 entire testimony because I don't think it's 25 truthful.

11 THE DEFENDANT: Well, but, Judge --

12 → THE COURT: That doesn't matter to me,
 13 because I believe you're going to do it again. I 14 believe you're going to continue to do it. If you 15 get off probation, you'll do it immediately again.
 16 I agree with that.

17 THE DEFENDANT: Your Honor, the fact
 18 -- excuse me, the cold.

19 → Your Honor, now that I know
