

LOGIE

Reading his bio, if any of it is true and not grossly inflated, He claimed he had 13 clients (victims) at the time he was appointed by corrupt weilheimer and he has had 100 total victims.

Based on how corrupt, incompetent and just indifferent to the happiness, care, needs and wants for his victims, I would like to have a list of those victims to see just what the victims families thought of him.

I bet he ignored and stole from his victims and denied the victims visits and human rights the same way he did to Mother.

Dwayne Logie, Owner & Founder

Biography

Dwayne Logie graduated from Grove City College with honors in Business Administration and Economics. After working for two Fortune 500 companies, Xerox and Procter & Gamble, his entrepreneurial spirit led him to venture into the restaurant business. For sixteen years he owned and operated a high performing franchise of Chick-fil-A in Center City Philadelphia.

When Dwayne became aware that his grandmother was having difficulty with her bill paying and banking, he began to manage her finances for her. He soon realized that there were many seniors in the same situation with no one available to help them. At the same time, an article in The Wall Street Journal describing the concept of daily money management caught his attention. Within a short time he founded Logie & Company to provide daily money management services to seniors in Delaware and Chester Counties. Over the next seventeen years he expanded the business to provide Powers of Attorney, Guardianships, and Estate Executorships. Having completed the requirements of the National Guardianship Association, he has earned the designation of National Certified Guardian.

→ With his appointment as Guardian of the Person and/or Estate over 100 times by thirteen different judges in Delaware, Chester, Montgomery, and Philadelphia Counties, Dwayne has gained a wealth of experience handling and resolving complicated financial and personal life issues. In addition to working with Adult Protective Services and law enforcement, he has been hired as a consultant to nursing homes in order to gather and process information required for Medicaid applications. As a guardian, Dwayne has managed income-producing properties including an oil and natural gas lease. He has handled the sale of real estate, negotiated with the IRS, analyzed court-required accountings, overseen large brokerage accounts made up of stocks, bonds and equity options, and made medical, hospice, and end-of-life decisions.

Dwayne and his wife Karen have four grown children, and they reside in West Chester, Pennsylvania.
